ASSIGNMENT

WHEREAS, Paul P. Umbeck of Madison, Wisconsin (hereinafter "Assignor") has invented a genetic engineering of cotton plants and lines, for which application is being made for Letters Patent in the United States, said application being executed by Assignor on date even herewith, (hereinafter the "application"); and

WHEREAS, Agracetus, (hereinafter "Assignee"), a general partnership organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York, having its principal office in Middleton, Wisconsin, desires to acquire an interest in the application;

NOW, THEREPORE, in consideration of One Dollar ($1.00) and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt of which by Assignor from Assignee is hereby acknowledged, Assignor hereby sells, assigns, and transfers the patent onto Assignee together with the full and exclusive right, title, and interest in and to the invention as claimed in the application for the territory of the United States of America, its territories and possessions, and for all foreign countries. The application and invention claimed therein are to be held and enjoyed by Assignee for its own use and advantage and for that of its successors and assigns to the full end of the term for which Letters Patent may be granted as fully and entirely as the same would have been held and enjoyed by Assignor had this assignment and sale not been made.

Assignor further hereby agrees to provide all reasonable aid to Assignee in making and prosecuting any application for other Letters Patent that Assignee may wish to make covering the invention claimed in the application and in investing in Assignee like exclusive right, title, and interest in and to all such other applications and resulting Letters Patent in similar proportion. Assignor hereby agrees that Assignor will similarly aid Assignee in the prosecution of any interference that may arise involving any application for Letters Patent herein contemplated and that Assignor will execut? and deliver to Assignee any and all additional papers that may be reasonably requested by Assignee to fully carry out the terms of this Agreement.

Assignor hereby authorizes the Assignee or the attorney of record in the application to insert below the filing date and serial number of the application when that information is known:
